Psalm 118–119 - The Messiah's Praise & The Glory of God's Word

Album 29 Song 1 The sound of salvation

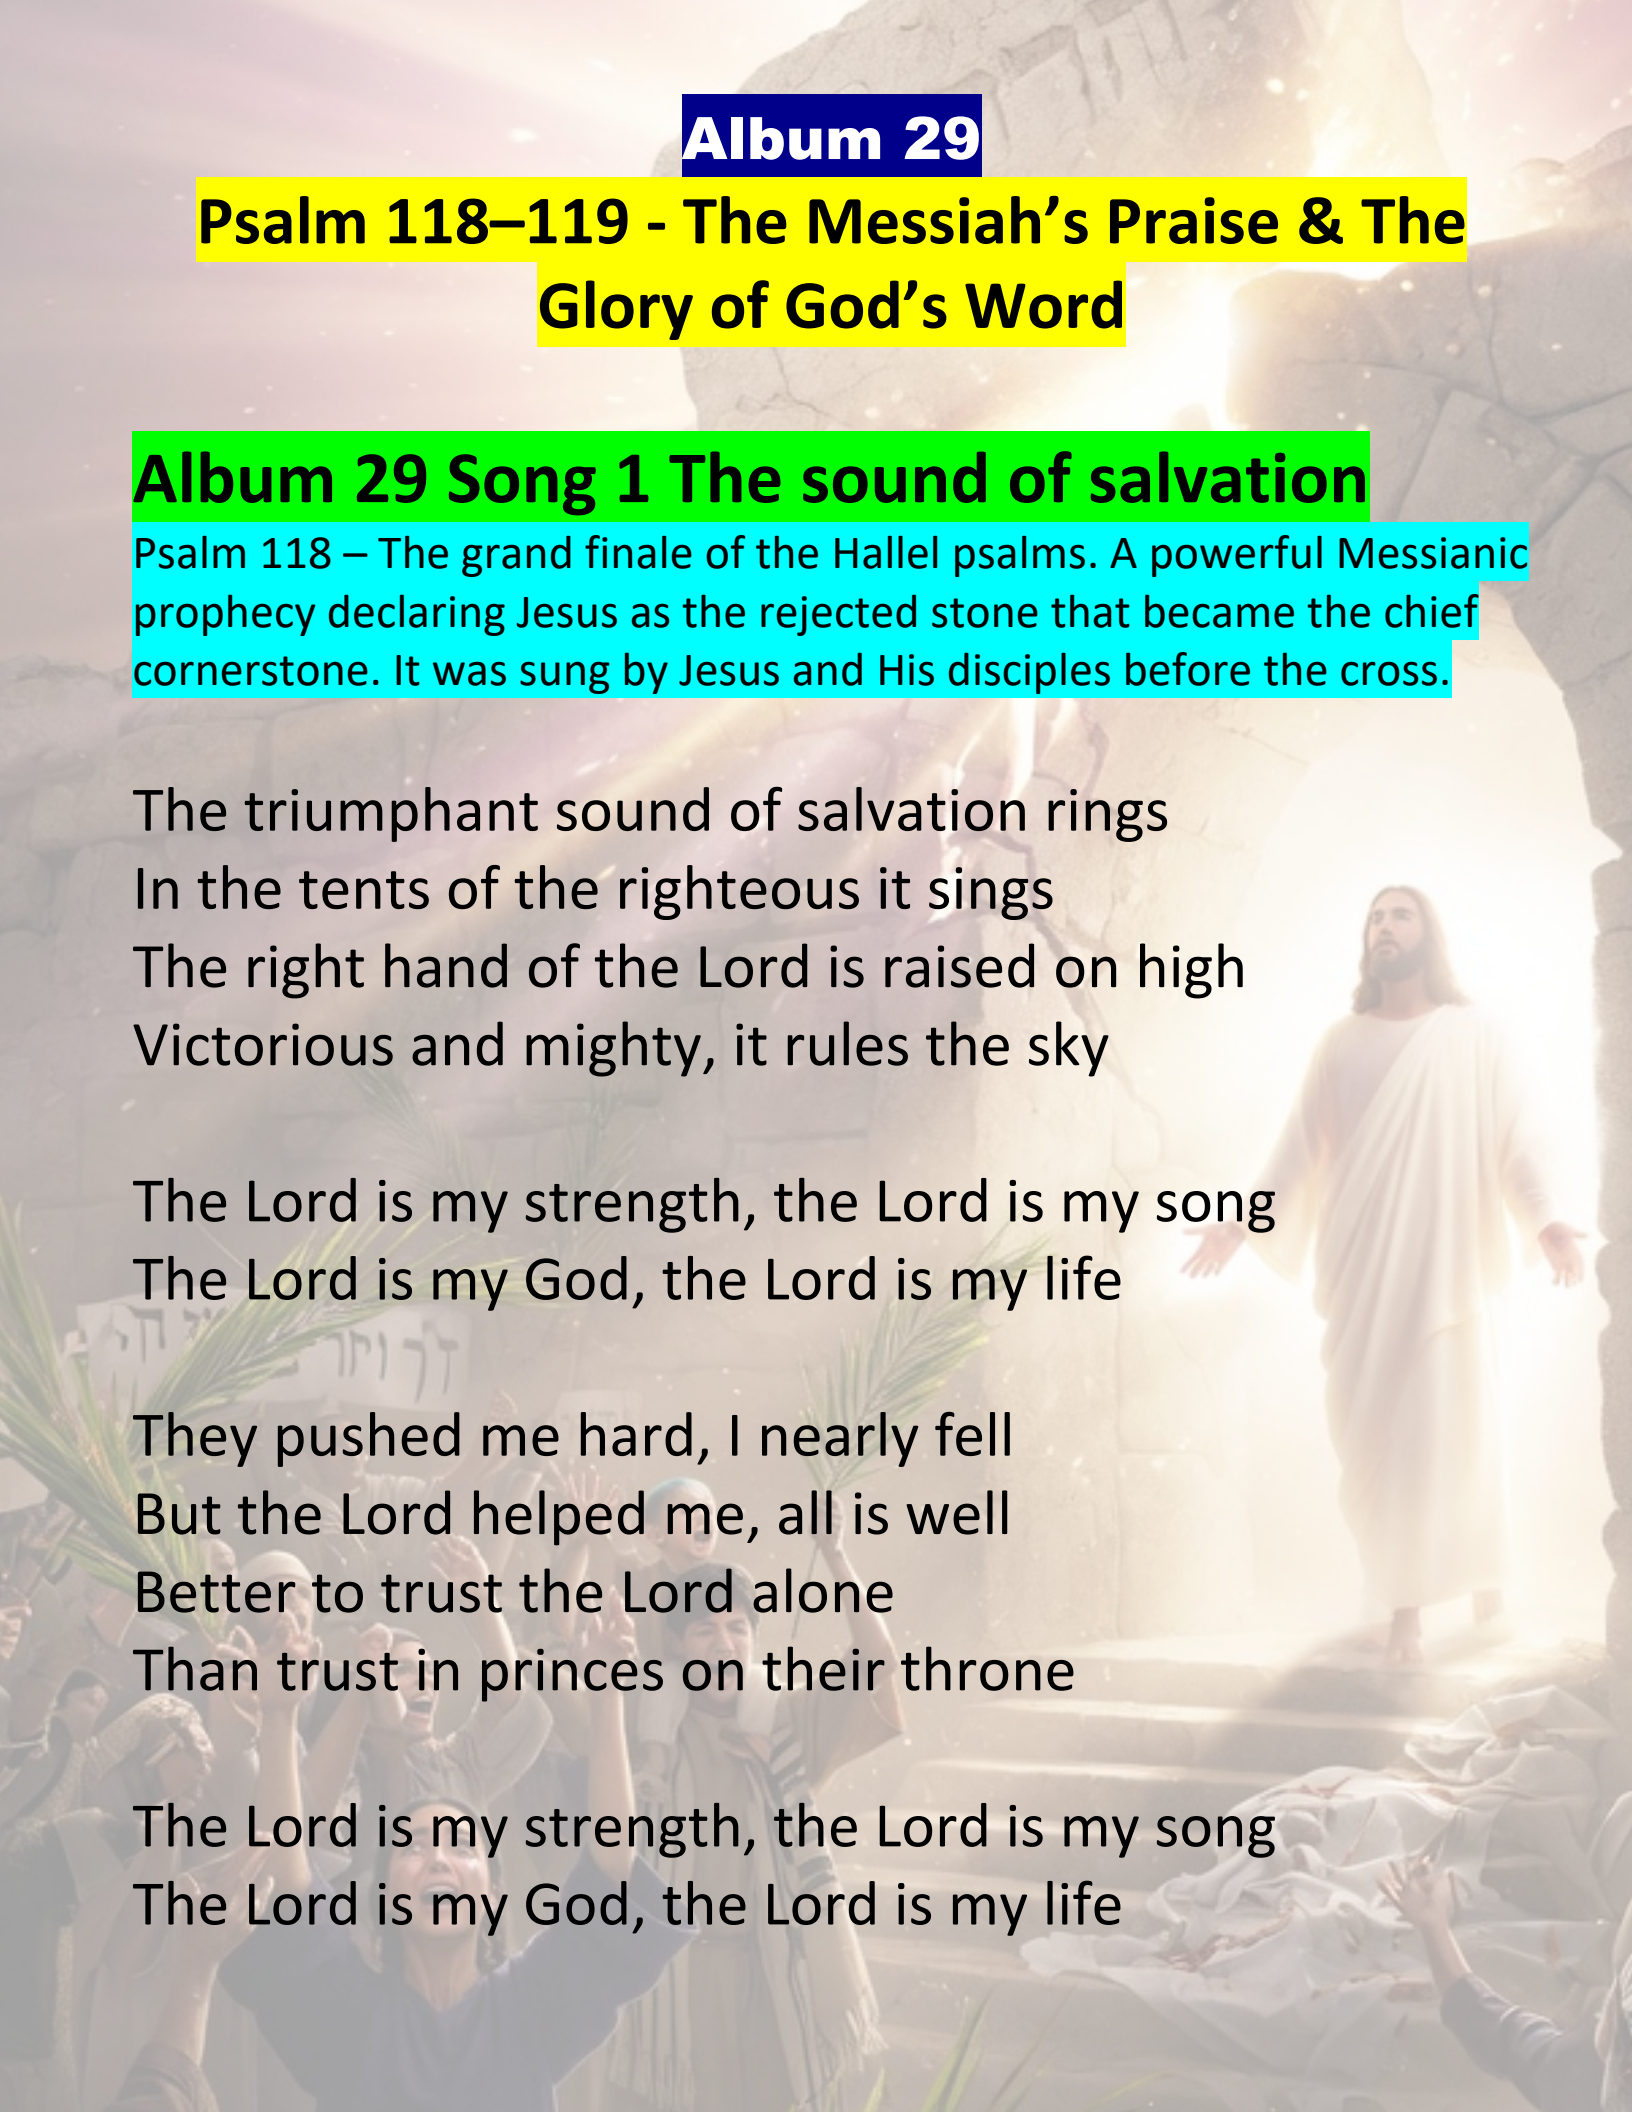

Psalm 118 – The grand finale of the Hallel psalms. A powerful Messianic prophecy declaring Jesus as the rejected stone that became the chief cornerstone. It was sung by Jesus and His disciples before the cross.

The triumphant sound of salvation rings
In the tents of the righteous it sings
The right hand of the Lord is raised on high
Victorious and mighty, it rules the sky

The Lord is my strength, the Lord is my song
The Lord is my God, the Lord is my life

They pushed me hard, I nearly fell
But the Lord helped me, all is well
Better to trust the Lord alone
Than trust in princes on their throne

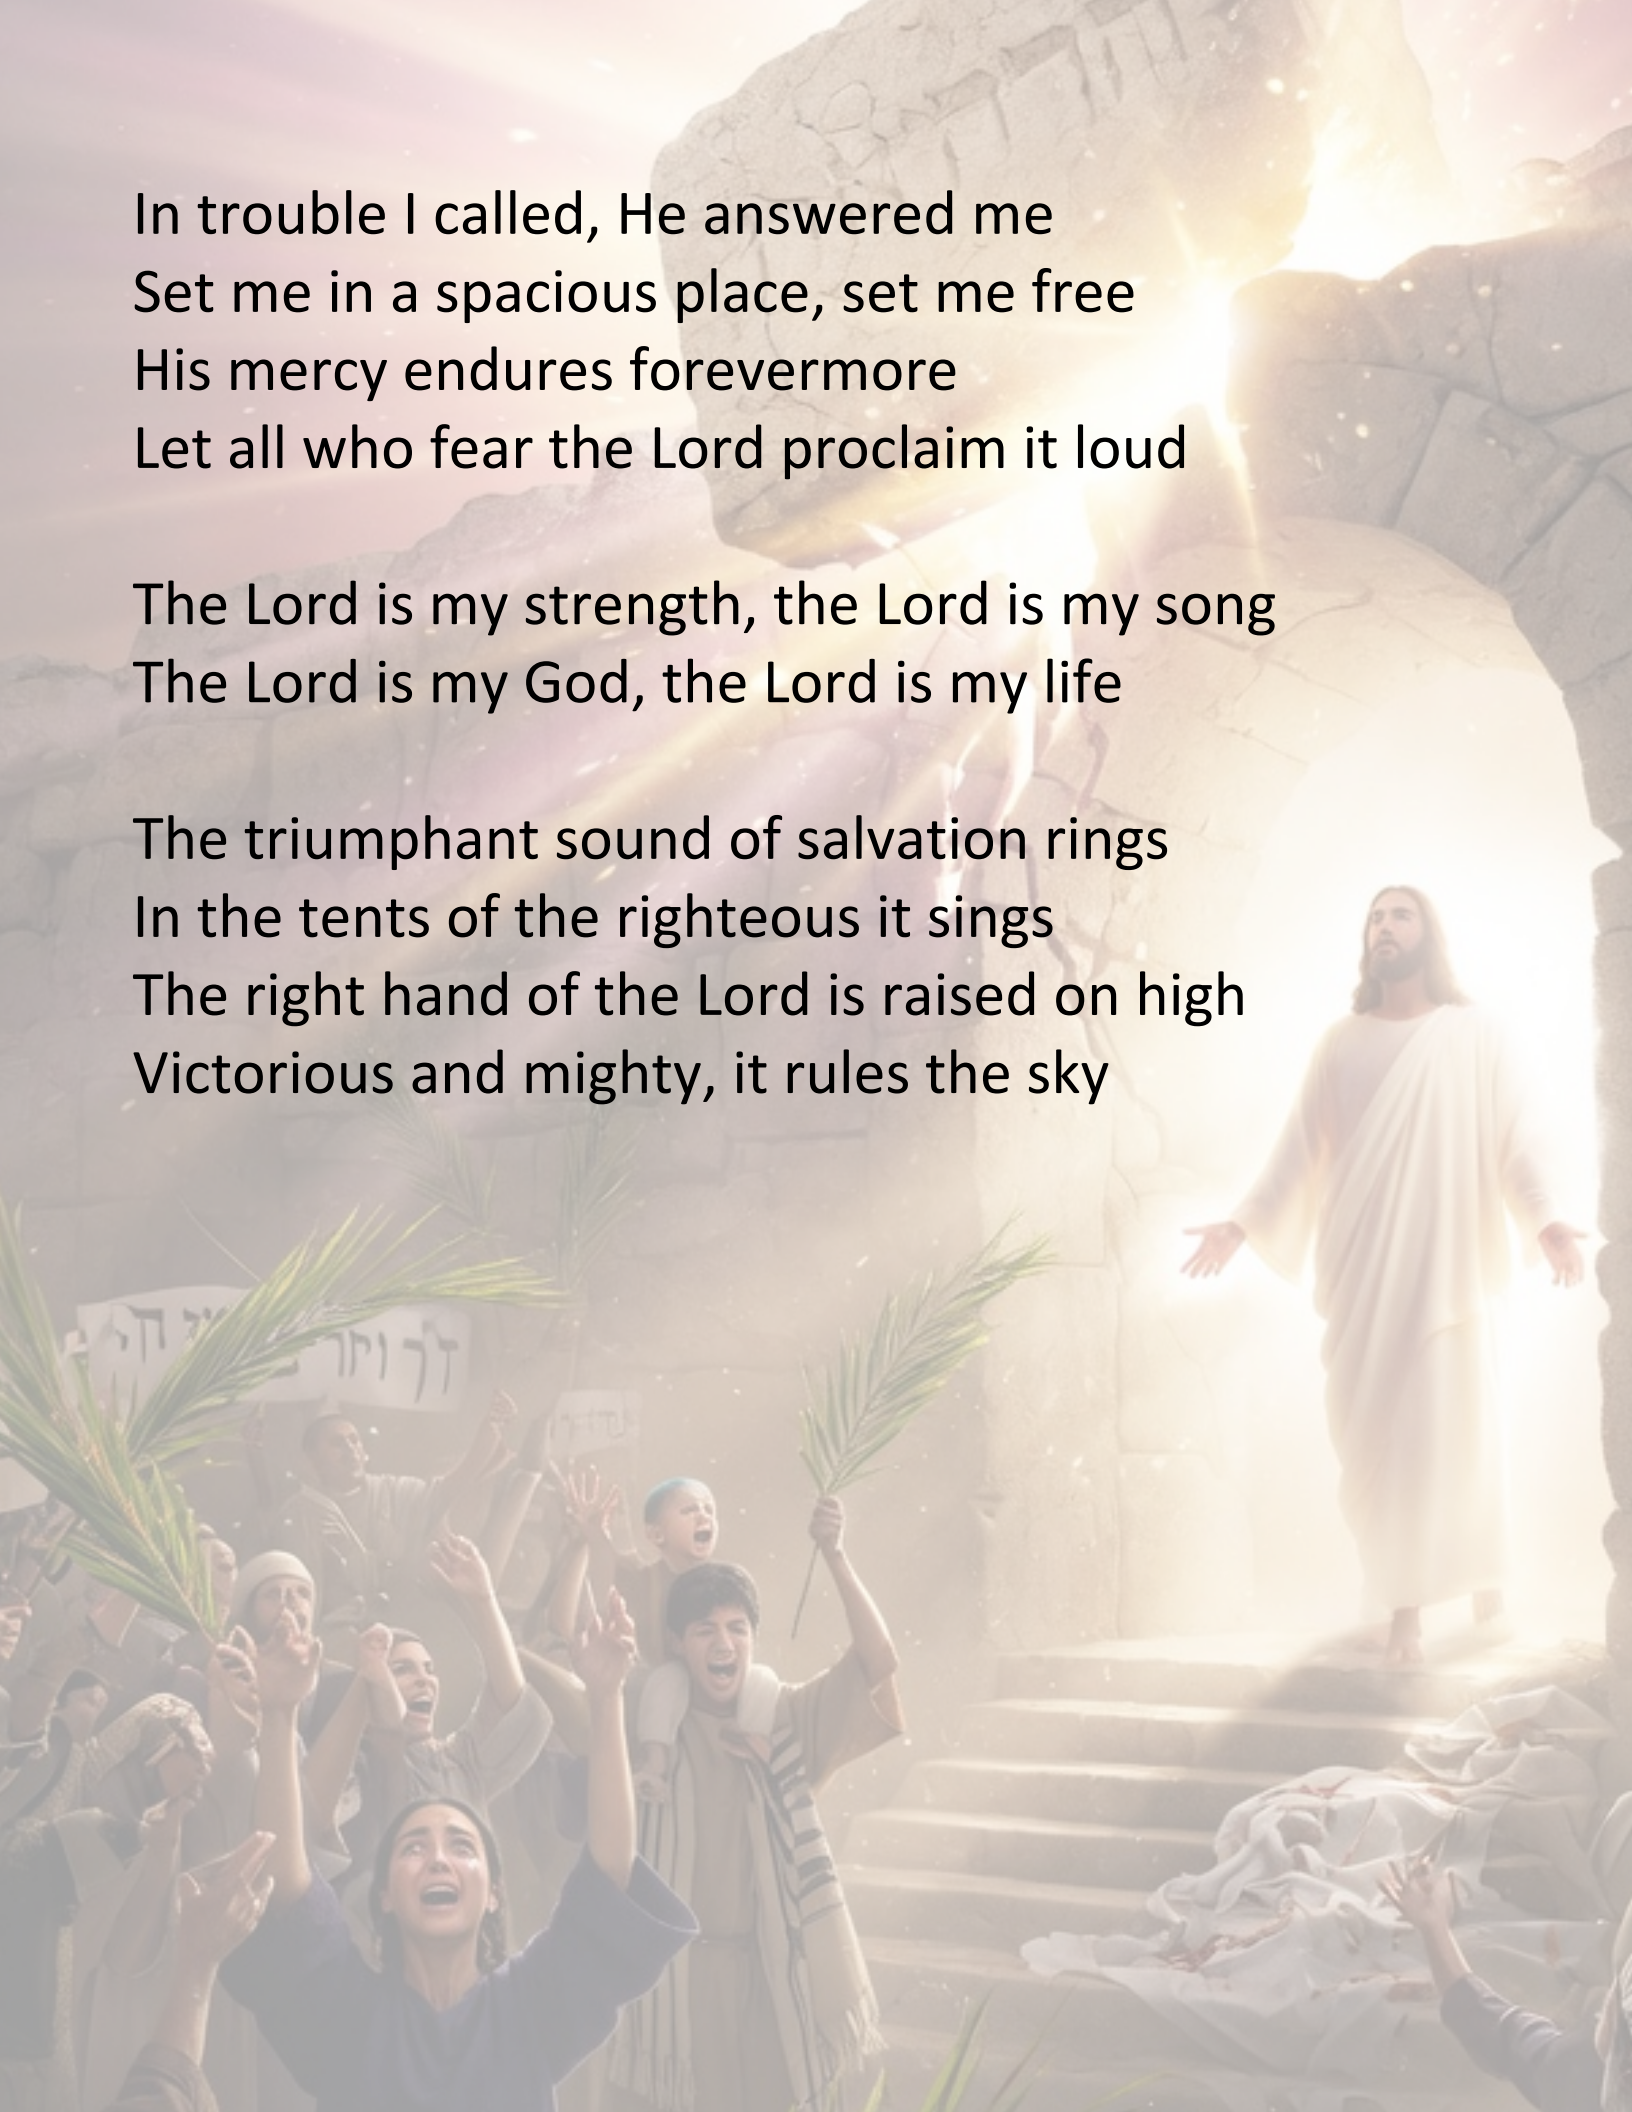

The Lord is my strength, the Lord is my song
The Lord is my God, the Lord is my life

In trouble I called, He answered me
Set me in a spacious place, set me free
His mercy endures forevermore
Let all who fear the Lord proclaim it loud

The Lord is my strength, the Lord is my song
The Lord is my God, the Lord is my life

The triumphant sound of salvation rings
In the tents of the righteous it sings
The right hand of the Lord is raised on high
Victorious and mighty, it rules the sky
